15. UNIT TRUST LOAN FINANCING RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT 15.1 Investing in a unit trust fund with borrowed money is more risky than investing with the customer's own savings. 15.2 The customer should assess if loan financing is suitable for the customer in light of the customer's objectives, attitude to risk and financial circumstances. The customer should be aware of the risks, which would include the following: (a) The higher the margin of financing (that is, the amount of money the customer borrows for every ringgit of the customer's own money which the customer puts in as deposit or down payment), the greater the loss or gain on the customer's investment. (b) The customer should assess whether the customer has the ability to service the repayments on the proposed loan. If the customer's loan is a variable rate loan, and if interest rates rise, the customer's total repayment amount will be increased. (c) If unit prices fall beyond a certain level, the customer may be asked to provide additional acceptable collateral (where units are used as collateral) or pay additional amounts on top of the customer's normal installments. If the customer fails to comply within the time prescribed, the customer's units may be sold towards the settlement of the customer's loan. (d) Returns on unit trusts are not guaranteed and may not be earned evenly over time. This means that there may be some years where returns are high and other years where losses are experienced. Whether the customer eventually realises a gain or loss may be affected by the timing of the sale of the customer's units. The value of units may fall just when the customer wants the customer's money back even though the investment may have done well in the past. (e) This brief statement cannot disclose all the risks and other aspects of loan financing. The customer should therefore carefully study the terms and conditions before the customer decides to take a loan. If the customer is in doubt about any aspect of this risk disclosure statement or the terms of the loan financing, the customer should consult the institution offering the loan.

"Appropriate Authority" means any government or taxing authority; 18.2 The fees and/or all other monies to be paid by Customer to HLAM under these terms and conditions herein, including any amount representing reimbursements to be paid by Customer to HLAM, is exclusive of any Tax, and shall be paid without any set-off, restriction or condition and without any deduction for or on account of any counterclaim or any deduction or withholding. 18.3 In the event Customer is required by law to make any deduction or withholding from the fees and/or all other monies payable to HLAM under these terms and conditions herein in respect of any Tax or otherwise, the sum payable by Customer in respect of which the deduction or withholding is required shall be increased so that the net fees and/or the net amount of monies received by HLAM is equal to that which HLAM would otherwise have received had no deduction or withholding been required or made. 18.4 The Customer shall in addition to the fees and/or all other monies payable, pay to HLAM all applicable Tax at the relevant prevailing rate and/or such amount as is determined by HLAM to cover any Tax payments/liabilities/obligations in connection therewith, without any set-off, restriction or condition and without any deduction for or on account of any counterclaim or any deduction or withholding, apart from any Taxes which may be required under any laws to be paid by the Customer directly to any Appropriate Authority, which the Customer shall remit directly to the Appropriate Authority. 18.5 If at any time an adjustment is made or required to be made between HLAM and the relevant taxing authority on account of any amount paid as Tax as a consequence of any supply made or deemed to be made or other matter in connection with these terms and conditions herein by HLAM, a corresponding adjustment may at HLAM's discretion be made as between HLAM and Customer and in such event, any payment necessary to give effect to the adjustment shall be made. 18.6 All Tax as shall be payable by the Customer to HLAM as herein provided shall be paid at such times and in such manner as shall be requested by the HLAM, failing which the Customer shall pay to the HLAM interest at the rate of ten per centum (10%) per annum calculated on a day to day basis on the amount of Tax unpaid from the due date until payment. 18.7 The Customer hereby agrees to do all things reasonably requested by HLAM to assist HLAM in complying with its obligations under any applicable legislation under which any Tax is imposed. In the event a new Tax is introduced and such Tax is required to be charged on the transaction contemplated in these terms and conditions herein, the Customer agrees to provide its fullest cooperation to HLAM in assisting HLAM in complying with its obligations under the relevant laws. 18.8 The Customer shall indemnify HLAM and shall hold HLAM harmless from any liability arising as a result of any breach of obligation on the part of the Customer to pay the Tax as set out herein, together with all loss, costs and expenses resulting from such breach. Nothing in these terms and conditions herein requires HLAM to pay any amount of fine, penalty, interest or other amount for which the Customer is liable for. 18.9 For the avoidance of doubt, the parties agree that any sum payable or amount to be used in the calculation of a sum payable expressed elsewhere in these terms and conditions herein has been determined without regard to and does not include amounts to be added on under this clause on account of Tax.

19. FATCA 19.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained: (a) Any payment made by, or on behalf of the Manager (the "Payor") to, or for the benefit of, Client (the "Payee") shall be made subject to any withholding or deduction imposed on such payment pursuant to or on account of Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA") or any other arrangements with foreign governments or regulators and no additional payment shall be required, nor any payment increased, on account of any such withholding or deduction. The Payee's indemnification obligation hereunder shall include any related liability for interest and, if the Payee has failed to provide the Payor, in a timely fashion, with sufficient information necessary for the Payor to determine whether and/or to what extent it is required to make any deduction or withholding pursuant to or on account of FATCA or any other arrangements with foreign governments or regulators, shall include any related liability for penalties; and (c) The Payee hereby consents to the disclosure of information on the Payee by the Payor to local and foreign regulatory and/or tax authorities including those in the United States.
